

MCMILLAN'S CHERNOBYL

AN INTIMATION OF THE WAY THE WORLD WOULD END

FILM 2 OF THE 8-PART PROGRAM

CHERNOBYL ON FILM: FROM COMMEMORATION TO "CONTAINMENT"

FILM
2

SHOWING:
TUESDAY
JANUARY 22, 2019
12:00 PM
WH 124

"Based on Mario Petrucci's award-winning book-length poem, Heavy Water: A Film for Chernobyl tells the story of the people who dealt with the disaster at ground level: the fire-fighters, the soldiers, the 'liquidators,' and their families."

-The producers

Seventh Art Productions presents

Heavy Water A film for Chernobyl

A film by David Bickerstaff and Phil Grabsky
Poetry by Mario Petrucci

Featuring the voices of Francine Brody, Juliet Stevenson,
David Threlfall and Samuel West

(2006) 52 mins.

JOIN US!

ALL SCREENINGS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC